Hunting deep in uncharted territory calls for binocular protection that's more than just secure. Tough and weather-resistant on the outside. Padded in all the right places to shield against scratches, dings, and accidental drops. Making you more efficient and helping you stay focused on filling your tags, the GlassPak™ Pro is designed for peace-of-mind protection AND fast access to essential gear. Front, side, and rear storage pockets. Modular attachment points for a rangefinder (pouch included), accessories, sidearm holster, or bear spray. Easy to adjust and comfortable to wear solo, under a backpack, running to head off an animal, or crawling through the underbrush when closing the distance on a trophy. Choose from two sizes to accommodate small and large glass.
